
Arkansas Tech University - CIS Department

Website Outline

Islam Ebeid

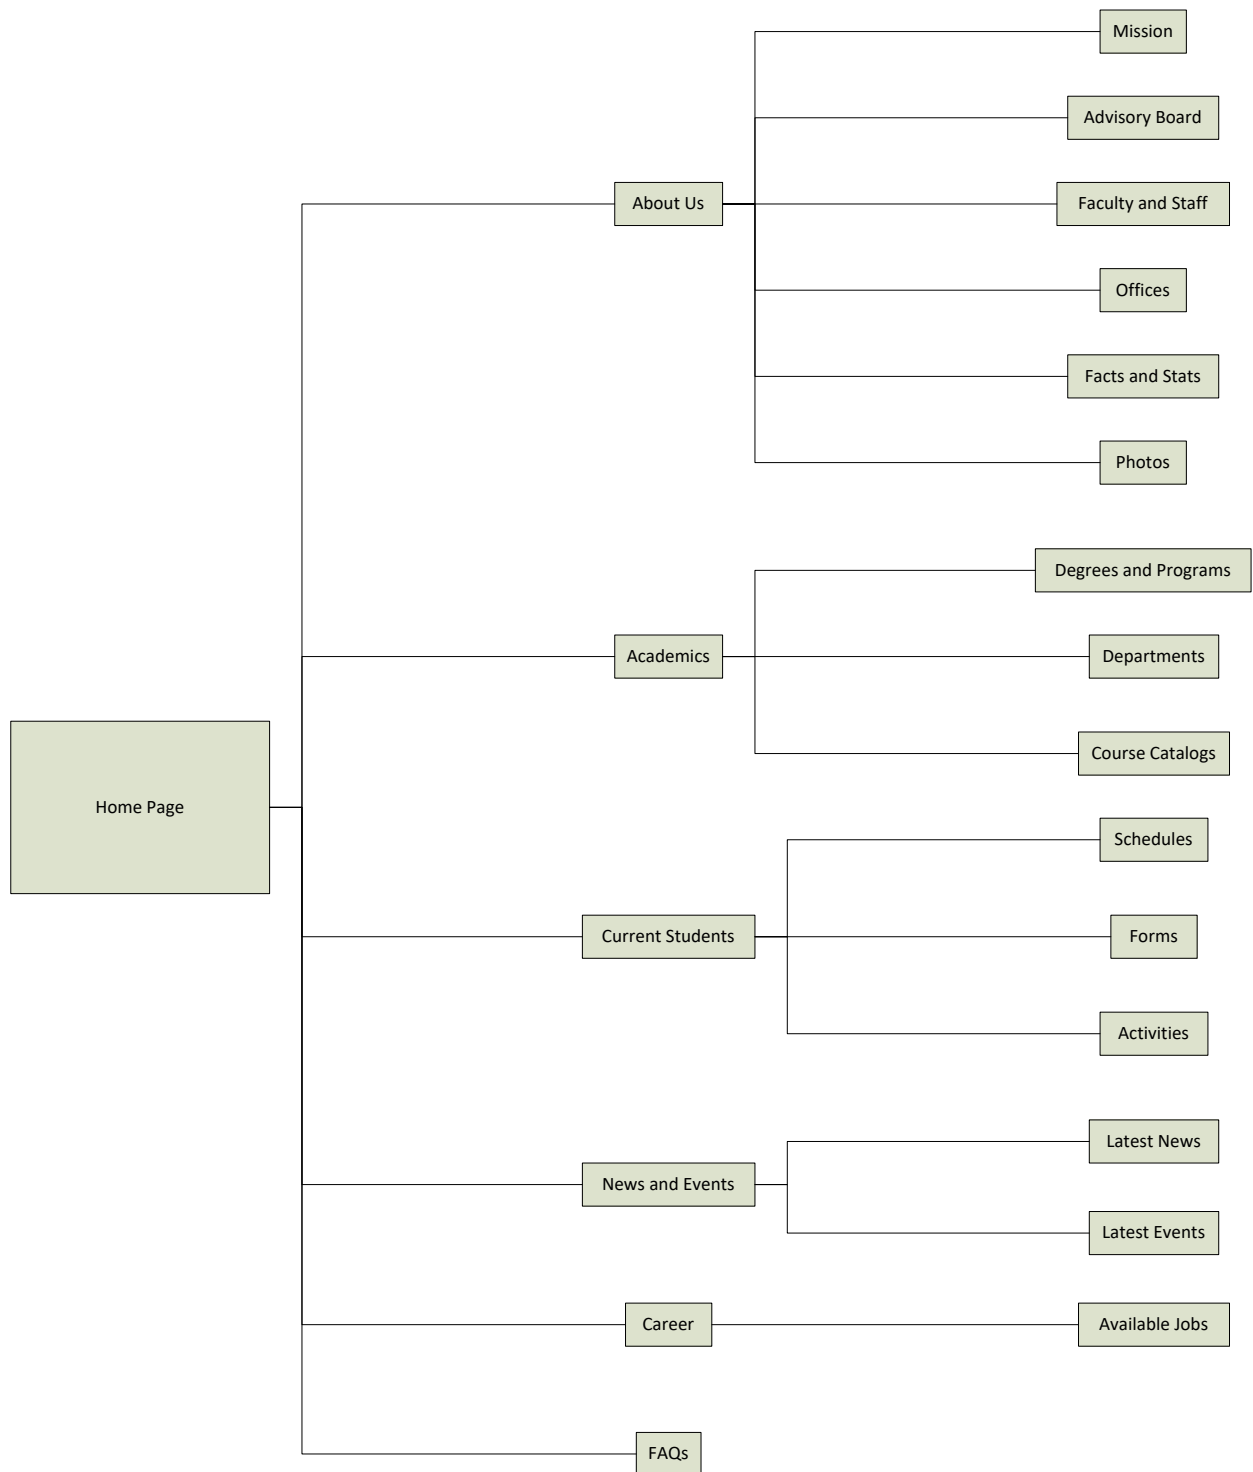

1. Purpose

This web site is designed to offer a variety of information for the computer and information science department and to be a complete reference for target audience: Current Students, Future Students, Parents, Potential Employees, and Alumni and the ABET.

Specifically it provides:

- information on Programs offered by the department
- Course catalogs
- Information about the faculty and staff
- Latest news and events regarding the department
- Scholarships offered
- Student interaction : form submission , class schedules

2. Site Organization

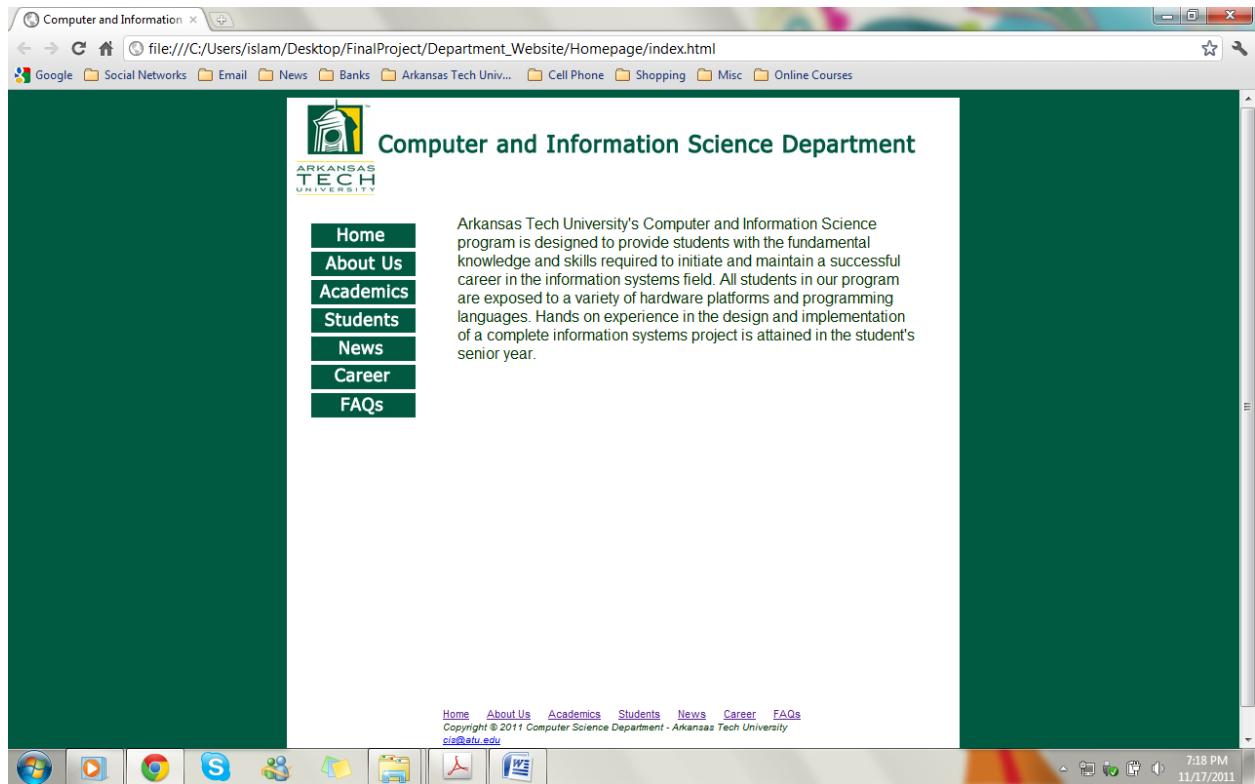

3. Description

- Home Page : It is the welcome page for the website where it can contain images for the department , the link navigation bar and the news section
- About Us :

This page is intended to get the visitor know the department in a non academic way through reading the dean's word , know the staff running the department and see some photos to be able to visualize the place.

 - Mission : Mission is usually the purpose of the staff and what quality and commitment will they offer and a word by the dean
 - Advisory Board : Contains a list of advisors and their curriculum
 - Faculty and Staff : A directory of all faculty professors and staff employees including their offices and hours and contacts
 - Offices : Provides information about the building and the room numbers and places and a top view map
 - Facts and Stats : Some facts and statistics about the department and students
 - Photos : a photo album taken at many places in the building
- Academics : Probably a word about the quality of academics and then links to the following
 - Degrees and Programs : A list of offered degrees and programs linking to the degree curriculum
 - Departments : A list of internal departments like "Computer Science", "Information Systems" or "Information Technology"
 - Course Catalogs : A list of all offered courses and their description and contents
- Current Students : Information for current students enrolled in the department
 - Schedules : Offered course schedules and information
 - Forms : Contains links to official forms like : "Permit to Register" or "Drop Classes"
 - Activities : Links to different activities that the student can enroll in like : "Computer Club"
- News and Events :
 - Latest News : A feed with latest department news
 - Latest Events : A Calendar with the latest events happening in the department
- Career : Search and Apply for a job in the department
- FAQs : A bank of all frequently asked questions with their answers

4. Screen Shots

Home Page

About Us Page

