Love Exploration

By Islam A. Ebeid

Chapter 1: The Cloud & The River

Like a cloud it passes

It pours everything cleans the masses

Or fleets & shelters

And sweeps & halters

A long rope that defies

Any fleeting thought

A warmth that flushes

Every treading heart

Like a river it flows

It streams and grows

It smothers the banks

And fills the tanks

Of wandering souls

Who yearn for tenderness

That tries its best to wake them before their falls

To free their kindness

Chapter 2: What is?

The light within the breath of fresh air

The hands that hold steady when gripped

The friend who asks for a hug like a bear

The gift under the tree that gets ripped

The thought of others

The abreast of lovers

The worry of mothers

The good will of brothers

When missing it hurts

When present it spurts

Love is a cure

It helps you endure

All that is thrown

And yet to be known

Chapter3:

Love is not a crime

Love is the compass of the mind

Love is a sweet chime

Love is the island you'll find

A treasure trove

A palm tree clove

A sweet water stream

A taste of coconut cream

A homecoming into a frame

With a family with no blame

A bond that needs no one to explain